28 and the location of the property, as the Court may consider necessary or 29 expedient with a view to achieving the objectives of the restraint order.

1 (5) The Court making a restraint order shall, at the same time, make an 2 order-

3 (a) authorizing the Agency or an authorized person acting on its

9 (a) may, on application by a person affected by the order, vary or 10 rescind the restraint order or an order authorizing the seizure of the property 11 specified in the order, or other ancillary order, if it is satisfied that-

12 (i) the operation of the order will deprive the applicant of the means to 13 provide for his reasonable living expenses and cause undue hardship to the 14 applicant or close dependent relatives, and 15 (ii) the hardship that the applicant will suffer as a result of the order 16 outweighs the risk that the property may be destroyed, lost, damaged, 17 concealed, transferred or otherwise disposed of; and 18 (b) shall rescind or vary the restraint order when the proceedings 19 against the defendant concerned are concluded.

20 (7) Where the Court orders the rescission of an order authorizing the 21 seizure of property in accordance with subsection (6) (a) of this section, the 22 Court shall make such other order as it considers appropriate for the proper, fair

13 (b) the defendant, where the interest is not held by the defendant 14 but is under his effective control.

15 (5) The Court shall not hear an application to exclude specified

2 this subsection.

3 (6) The Court convicting a person may, when passing sentence,

18 on by him or any other person connected with the criminal activity;

19 (b) where a confiscation order has previously been made against

23 confiscation order; and 24 (c) ensure that the following are deducted-

25 (i) expenses or outgoings that the person incurred in relation to the 26 criminal activity, or

9 make representations to it, in connection with the realization of that 10 property.

11 (6) Where there is no amount that may be realized, the Court may 12 make an order for a nominal amount.

29 value of the property.

30 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this

1 section, a reference in this Part to the value at the time of payment or reward, is 2 construed as a reference to-

3 (a) the value of the payment or reward at the time when the recipient 4 received it, as adjusted to take into account subsequent fluctuations in the value 5 of money; or

6 (b) where subsection (3) of this section applies, the value mentioned 7 in that subsection, whichever is greater in value.

8 (3) Where, at the time referred to in subsection (2), the recipient to proceeds of criminal activity

24 77.-(1) For the purposes of determining whether a convicted person 25 has derived a benefit under section 70 (1) of this Act, where it is found that the 26 defendant did not at the prescribed date, or since the beginning of a period of six 27 years before the prescribed date, have legitimate sources of income sufficient 28 to justify the interests in any property that the convicted person holds, the Court 29 shall accept this fact as prima facie evidence that the interests form part of the 30 benefit.

1 (2) For the purposes of section 70 (1) of this Act, where it is found 2 that the Court had ordered the convicted person to disclose any facts under 3 section 58 (5) or 76 (6) of this Act and that the convicted person had, without 4 sufficient cause, failed to disclose the facts or had, after being so ordered,
5 furnished false information, knowing the information to be false, the Court 6 shall accept those facts as prima facie evidence that any property to which 7 the information relates-

8 (a) forms part of the convicted person's benefit, in determining 9 whether he has derived a benefit from an offence; or 10 (b) is held by the convicted person as an advantage, payment, 11 service or reward in connection with the offences or related criminal 12 activity.

17 (i) he held property at any time at, or since, his conviction, or 18 (ii) the property was transferred to him at any time since the 19 beginning of a period of six years before the prescribed date,

20 the Court shall accept these facts as prima facie evidence that the property 21 was received by him at the earliest time at which he held it, as an advantage, 22 payment, service or reward in connection with the offences or related 23 criminal activities referred to in section 70 (1) of this Act; or 24 (b) has benefited from an offence and that expenditure had been 25 incurred by him since the beginning of the period specified in paragraph (a) 26 of this subsection, the Court shall accept the facts as prima facie evidence 27 that the expenditure was met out of the advantages, payments, services or 28 rewards, including any property received by him in connection with the 29 offences or related criminal activities referred to in section 70 (1) of this Act.

30 (4) For the purpose of determining the value of any property under

1 section 71 (1) of this Act, where the Court finds out that the convicted person 2 received property at any time as an advantage, payment, service, or reward in 3 connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in that 4 section, whether committed by him or by any other person, the Court shall 5 accept this fact as prima facie evidence that he received that property free of 6 any other person's interest in it.

7 (5) Where, at the hearing of an application for a confiscation order in 8 relation to an offence concerning a narcotic substance, the value of the narcotic 9 substance is brought into question, an investigating officer from the relevant

11 may testify to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, with respect 12 to-

13 (a) the market value, at the time of the offence, of similar or 14 substantially similar narcotic substances; and 15 (b) the amount that was, or the range of amounts that were, ordinarily 18 evidence of the matters testified.

Procedure where a person absconds or dies

23 (i) had been charged with an offence,

29 attendance of that person in Court cannot be secured after all reasonable steps 30 were taken to execute that warrant;

3 (d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a confiscation order 4 may have been made against him but for his continued absence.

5 (2) Where a defendant, who has been convicted of an offence, dies 6 before a confiscation order is made, the Court may, on the application by the 7 relevant organisation or the Agency, enquire into any benefit the person may 8 have derived from that offence if the Court is satisfied that there are 9 reasonable grounds for believing that a confiscation order would have been 10 made against him, but for his death.

11 (3) The executor of the estate of the deceased is entitled to appear 12 before the Court and make representations for purposes of the enquiry 13 referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

27 connection with the making of any order.

28 (6) The Court in conducting an enquiry under this section shall not 29 apply the provisions of sections 76 and 77 of this Act.

24 (d) notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) (c) of this 25 section, the relevant organisation or the Agency believes that -

26 (i) the amount determined as the convicted person's benefit in the 27 original confiscation hearing is greater than the amount of the confiscation 28 order, and

29 (ii) if the Court were to determine the amount of the convicted 30 person's realisable assets in pursuance of this section, it would exceed the

1 amount determined, as the convicted person's realisable assets in the 2 original confiscation hearing;

3 (e) before the end of the period of six years commencing from the 4 date of conviction, the agency may on its own, apply to the court to 26 confiscation order, may vary the order by substituting for the amount 27 required to be paid an amount, not exceeding the amount as originally 28 determined within the provisions of section 71 of this Act, as it deemed fit 29 and proper.

30 (5) Section 77 of this Act shall not apply in making a determination

20 calculation; and

21 (b) date of the confiscation order was made to the date of the 22 calculation.

23 (3) Where the Court finds that the available amount calculated is 24 inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be paid under the 26 required to be paid, a smaller amount, as the Court believes is just.
